Information about your managing officials

Welthungerhilfe and PARTNER ORGANIZATION up holds high moral standards regarding the conduct of its employees, partners, suppliers, and other service providers. As discussed in part 2.3 below, one of these standards is a condemnation of terrorism and a commitment that no funds or other resources will be used to support terrorists or terrorist activities in any way. Not only is this standard an integral part of how Welthungerhilfe and PARTNER ORGANIZATION works, but it is also an expectation of our institutional donors and banks that we screen our suppliers and service providers against lists of known and suspected terrorists on a regular basis.

For this reason, we are required to collect certain information about the relevant decision makers of each supplier. In particular, we request information about your top 4 managing officials (e.g. executive board members, managing directors, or heads of department). Generally, these are the individuals listed on your company's registration document. If your company has fewer than 4 managing officials, please provide details for all of your managing officials and let us know this fact when submitting the form.

The data collected below will only be used for comparison with freely accessible international sanctions lists published on the internet and will be protected in accordance with applicable data protection laws. If you have any questions how your data will be processed or stored, please talk to your contact at Welthungerhilfe or send an email to screening@welthungerhilfe.de.

2. Welthungerhilfe policy statement

Welthungerhilfe supports the goals of the UN Global Compact

The UN Global Compact is a strategic policy initiative for organizations that are committed to aligning their operations and strategies with the following 10 universally accepted principles in the areas of human rights, labour, environment, and anticorruption:

Human rights

- Principle 1: Businesses should support and respect the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights; and

- Principle 2: make sure that they are not complicit in human rights abuses.

Labour

- Principle 3: Businesses should uphold the freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining;
- Principle 4: the elimination of all forms of forced and compulsory labour;
- Principle 5: the effective abolition of child labour.
- Principle 6: the elimination of discrimination in respect of employment and occupation.

Environment

- Principle 7: Businesses hold support a precautionary approach to environmental challenges;
- Principle 8: undertake initiatives to promote greater environmental responsibility; and
- Principle 9: encourage the development and diffusion of environmentally friendly technologies.

Anti-corruption

- Principle 10: Businesses should work against corruption in all its forms, including extortion and bribery.

Further information about the UN Global Compact is available (in a variety of languages) at <https://www.unglobalcompact.org>

Welthungerhilfe adheres strictly to its own Code of Conduct

Welthungerhilfe's own Code of Conduct builds upon the principles of the UN Global Compact and is an integral lodestone in all of Welthungerhilfe's work. All Welthungerhilfe suppliers are expected to act in accordance with the values of our Code of Conduct, which are as follows:

- The highest standards of personal and professional conduct
